Step 2

Pieces I missed:

Pieces I totally forgot about:

New pieces I need:

This was hard:

This was nice:

Step 3

declutter

Make 3 piles:

Keep - pieces you really really love, feel gorgeous in and wear often. Put them back in your wardrobe.

Maybe - pieces you're not totally sure about... put them all in a box and place the box somewhere you don't see it every day.

Toss - pieces you don't want to keep. Check out where you can give it to charity in your town, go to a flea market or organize a clothing exchange with friends.

Step 4

Reflection

Decluttering felt...

My three favorite pieces in my wardrobe now:

How I would describe my style:

Step 5

And now?

Let some time pass...

Keep the maybe box in mind - Do you miss a certain piece? Or did you already forget what's inside the maybe box? Toss all that.

Buy only stuff you really need (okay, not need, but at least pieces you really love) - Choose carefully what you buy, try to shop second hand or fair fashion!

Repeat the whole process whenever you feel overwhelmed standing in front of your closet!
